CARD'S TERMS OF USE

2. These Terms of Use concern the use by the Cardholder of the Card granted by the Bank and are supplementary to the terms and conditions of the Framework Contract. In case of conflict between the present terms and the terms of the Framework Contract, the terms of the Framework Contract shall prevail. The Bank's cards may be used along with the PIN depending on the type of the Card to withdraw cash from the Bank's ATMs and from automated teller machines in Cyprus and abroad which bear the VISA sign. The cards may also be used for the payment of goods and services in Cyprus and abroad provided by suppliers that have the VISA sign and for the payment of goods and services through various channels (e.g. internet and telephone).
3. The Cardholder's authorisation to effect a Card Transaction is communicated to the Bank upon receipt by the Bank of the order to effect a Card Transaction which is sent directly to the Bank by the Cardholder or through a beneficiary or through the Card Transaction Acceptance and Processing Company.
4. The time of receipt of the payment order is considered to be the time at which the Bank receives the order to effect a Card Transaction communicated directly by the Cardholder or the beneficiary or through the Card Transaction Acceptance and Processing Company.
5. The Cardholder has the right to revoke an order to effect a Card Transaction but not later than the time at which the order became revocable in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. In case the order is given directly by the Cardholder, it becomes revocable upon its receipt by the Bank. In case an order for the effect of a Card Transaction is made by a beneficiary or through him, then it becomes revocable for the Cardholder as soon as the Cardholder communicates to the beneficiary the order for the effect of a Card Transaction or his authorisation for the effect of the Card Transaction.
6. The Card, which bears amongst other information the name of the Cardholder, the number of the Card and the month at the end of which the Card expires, will always be the property of the Bank and the Cardholder is obliged to return the same as soon as the Bank so demands. Upon such demand for return of the Card, any usage of the Card by the Cardholder constitutes an illegal action. The Cardholder is liable in such instance for all the transactions done through the use of the Card until its return to the Bank.
7. The Cardholder, is obliged to sign the Card (initial or upon renewal) immediately upon receipt with a ball-point pen at the space indicated for this purpose, and keep and maintain the Card in excellent condition for all the duration of its validity. The Cardholder has the exclusive responsibility for the authenticity of his signature. The Cardholder has the right to use the Card only within the period in which the Card is valid, as this is printed on the Card, within the agreed credit limit that will be granted by the Bank and for the use that will be permitted on every occasion by the Bank and only in accordance with these Terms of Use as they may be amended from time to time.
8. (a) The Cardholder is not allowed to use the card in excess of the credit limit of the Card Account as this is stated hereinabove. If, however, for any reason, the Cardholder exceeds the abovementioned credit limit, the Cardholder is obliged to settle at once the said unauthorised excess plus interest and/or any other charges. Any such amount in excess will be subject to excess charge calculated on the amount in excess and for the duration the account remains in excess. The excess charge shall be equal to the Default Interest Rate that is specified in the Banks Tariff Guide under the title Credit Cards which is available at the Bank's website www.astrobank.com (hereinafter "the Tariff Guide"). The Bank has absolute discretion whether or not to charge such an excess charge. The amount/percentage of the above-mentioned charge being presently in force is exhibited in the Tariff Guide.
(b) As part of the Bank's decision making process and in an effort to minimize misuse of the cards or fraud, the Bank has set certain internal security limits by fixing a maximum daily and/or per Card Transaction amount and/or maximum number for Card Transactions and as a result may refer an authorization request back to the Merchant for further information. In such case the Cardholder may be asked to produce further evidence of his identity. This may also be done on a random basis for fraud prevention purposes. The Bank shall not be liable for any damage suffered by the Cardholder as a result of delay or refusal to execute a Card Transaction. The maximum internal security limits per day and/or per Card Transaction amount and/or the maximum number of Card Transactions applicable are adequate to cover the majority of the Card Transactions. Where the Cardholder intends to make a Card Transaction for a higher amount or a large number of Card Transactions he should contact the Bank at the telephone number 800 11 800 (from Cyprus) and +357 22 575555 (from abroad), and inform them as to the time and/or the amount and provided the Account balance available allows for an increase/variation of the internal limits.
9. The Bank has the right, from time to time to issue new Cards in substitution of the existing ones. The new Cards may be of a different kind from the existing ones. Unless the cardholder is notified otherwise, the present terms and conditions will also apply to the new Cards issued in substitution of the existing ones. The Bank has the right to revoke the right to use the Card or to reject any application for approval of any particular Card Transaction or to refuse to reissue, renew or substitute that Card and shall notify the Cardholder of any such withdrawal or refusal, subject to the relevant provisions of the present agreement and of the Framework Contract.
10. The Bank has the right, if this is requested by the Main Cardholder, to issue a supplementary Card to any person under the absolute responsibility of the Cardholder. The terms and conditions of use of the Card will also apply for the use of the same by any such Authorised Cardholder but, in addition to any other right, the Bank will have the right, at any time, to cancel any Card issued to an Authorised Cardholder, upon the request of the Main Cardholder with the simultaneous return of the card to the Bank by the Authorised Cardholder. The Cardholder is obliged to provide relevant information upon the Bank's request. Within ten working days from receiving such refund request, the Bank either refunds the Card Transaction amount or justifies the refusal for refund, indicating to the Cardholder the authority to which he may lodge a complaint and the body to which he may appeal for out-of-court dispute resolution.

It is agreed that in case the Cardholder is not a consumer or a Microenterprise, the aforementioned deadline will be for a time period of 60 days instead of 13 months.
22. The Bank cannot in any way be held responsible if the Card is not accepted by any third party. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 19 hereinabove, any dispute between the Cardholder and a third party, as regards the Card Transactions, cannot in any way affect the Cardholder's obligation to pay to the Bank any debt which arises or is related to the use of the Card and no claim or counterclaim of the Cardholder against a third party shall constitute a defence or a counterclaim against the Bank.

- (c) If the whole outstanding balance appearing in the monthly statement of account as being due is repaid within the period shown in the statement of account, then there will be no charge of interest for the said month as regards the transactions that have been carried out during that month for which the statement of account was issued nor for the outstanding balance due from previous months.
- (d) The Bank has the right to impose charges for the transfer of money to the account in which the repayment amounts will be deposited. The said charges reach the sum/percentage mentioned in the Tariff Guide.

27. In the event that the payment into the Card Account is made by cheque, the Bank may not treat such payment as cleared funds until the cheque has been cleared and paid. In such event the payment date will be considered to be the date in which the cheque is cleared. If the said cheque is not honoured upon its first presentation, then the Cardholder will be charged with handling charges, which presently reach the amount/percentage as exhibited in the Tariff Guide.
28. In the event that the card outstanding balance becomes due and payable as stated herein below and the Cardholder refuses and/or omits to repay the same within the time limit fixed in writing by the Bank and as a result the Bank is forced to take legal action against him to recover the sums owed, then the Cardholder will be liable for any fees and/or costs incurred, legal or otherwise.

Customer Credit Program

1. Upon the issuance of Miles&More Visa card ("the Card"), the Cardholder ("the Cardholder") may participate in the Customer Credit Program ("the Miles&More Program"), as described below, which is designed and implemented jointly by AstroBank Public Company Limited ("the Bank") and the international company Miles&More International GmbH ("the Miles&More") which is a subsidiary company of the international air transport company Deutsche Lufthansa Aktiengesellschaft Group ("Lufthansa"). With the first transaction with the use of the Card and independently of the amount, the Main Cardholder will receive by the Bank welcome points (miles) ("welcome miles") which today amounts to 5.000 welcome points (miles) for the transaction using the Card. All miles earned with the Primary and Additional (Authorized) Cards, that is of Main Cardholders and Authorised Cardholders, will be credited to the Main Cardholder's mileage account. The transactions by using the Card that are covered by the Miles&More Program, are only purchases with repayment of the full purchase amount.
2. Following the above, the Cardholder will be able to win extra points (miles) in accordance with the use of the Card ("award miles"), in accordance with the following terms.
3. It is a prerequisite for the receipt of the welcome points ("welcome miles") and any other points (miles) from the usage of the Card, that the Cardholder is a member of the Miles&More Program, in accordance with the terms and conditions of Miles&More (Miles&More Membership Terms and Conditions), details of which are found in its relevant website (www.milesandmore.com). Pursuant to this the Cardholder has already declared through the application "Application for the Provision of Credit Card" that he is a member of the Miles&More Program with the acceding member number written in the first page of the said application. In case where the Cardholder is not a member of the Miles&More Program, with the present he expressly declares to the Bank that he has knowledge of the above mentioned terms and conditions of participation into this, as described in the above mentioned website, he speaks the German or/and English language in which the terms and conditions of the Miles&More Program are written and which he expressly declares that he fully understands and accepts. He also hereby provides his express instructions and authorization to the Bank to proceed in his name and on his behalf to any necessary action for his registration to the Miles&More Program and provides his unconditional consent to the transmission by the Bank of all his personal data necessary for his registration to the Miles&More Program. It is clarified that any possible contractual or other relationship of the Cardholder and of any existing member of the Miles&More Program and/or of a Cardholder who is registered in the Miles&More Program in accordance with the above mentioned procedure, with Miles&More are governed exclusively from the relevant terms and conditions details of which can be found at the website of Miles&More. The Bank will not bear or accept any responsibility in relation to the contents, legality, appropriateness, binding effect or the consequences from the implementation of these terms and conditions.
4. Without prejudice to the provisions of term 8 below, the Cardholder, pursuant to the Miles&More Program, will receive 1 point (mile) for every €1 transaction made with the use of the Card. This specific offer applies for purchase transactions (cash withdrawals and payments of taxes and fees to governmental bodies and payments of any utility bills are excluded (as of 1st September 2011)), made by the Cardholder with the use of the Card. The points (miles) earned by the Cardholder from his participation in the Miles and More Program as a Cardholder will expire thirty-six (36) months after these are earned provided that both below two (2) conditions are not met:
 - (a) The Cardholder has in his possession the Card for at least three (3) months before the expiry of the 36month period.
 - (b) The Cardholder makes at least one (1) transaction per month by using his Card from the above transactions that fall within the Miles&More Program. Provided that the above two (2) conditions are met, the unlimited validity of the points (miles) collected, will be in relation to all categories of points (miles) collected by the Cardholder as a member of the Miles&More Program i.e points (miles) from flights with Lufthansa and its associates, points (miles) from purchases by the Card or points (miles) from other offers of the associates of Miles&More throughout the world and shall be "converted" by the Main Cardholder at any time. If the above mentioned conditions are not met or, even if one (1) of these is not met and the points (miles) of the Cardholder expire, the points (miles) collected until then, will no longer be valid and cannot be reactivated, even if the Cardholder reuses his Card. The unlimited validity of points (miles), provided above conditions are met, is valid only for the Miles & More point (miles) account in which the miles earned from the usage of the Miles & More Visa card are credited. In the contrary, in the event where the Additional (Authorized) Cardholder is an existing member of the Miles & More program and has a personal Miles & More points (miles) account, the miles earned in his personal points (miles) account are not excluded from the abovementioned condition for unlimited validity of miles and will expire in 36 months after these are earned, unless the Additional (Authorized) Cardholder has a frequent traveller, senator or hon circle member status, in which case he is already entitled to the unlimited validity of points (miles). The Cardholder will be informed about his points and their possible expiry, through the point (miles) account received by the Miles&More in accordance with the Miles&More Program, as described in the above mentioned website. Full or part usage of the earned points (miles) from the Cardholder will have as a result the concurrent deduction of the used points (miles) from the point (miles) account of the Cardholder.
5. The Bank shall bear no responsibility if the "conversion" is made by a non authorized person.
6. The Bank shall bear no responsibility for any delay, omission or refusal of Miles&More to "convert", according to the Miles&More Program terms, the points collected by the Cardholder.
7. The Bank shall bear no responsibility for any legal or real defect that already appears or may appear in the products which the Cardholder may acquire by the conversion of his points (miles).
8. The Bank reserves the right to amend part or the whole of the Miles&More Program or its temporary or permanent termination without any prior notification to the Cardholder.
9. If for any reason the capacity of the Cardholder as a member of the Miles&More Program expires or is suspended, is expressly agreed that the Bank has the right to terminate the present contract, provided that the Cardholder will be notified in writing or electronically, assuming an e-mail address has been provided, (2) months prior, consequences of termination shall apply after the period of (2) months has elapsed.
10. The termination of the present contract in accordance with the terms above provided that the holder remains as a member of the Miles&More Program, will not affect the already earned and deposited points (miles) in the points (miles) account of the Cardholder and does not necessarily result in their annulment or cancellation. The Cardholder retains the right to proceed to the conversion of the points (miles) in accordance with the participation terms and conditions to the Miles&More Program.
11. Any future information sent to the Cardholder (through advertising leaflets or documents) constitute an addendum to the terms of the present and an integral part of it.
12. The Miles&More Program is offered by the Bank without any commitment or obligation from its part. The present terms shall not create any claim or demand on the part of the customer- Cardholder against the Bank. The terms of the present constitute an addendum to the above contract "TERMS OF USE OF ASTROBANK PUBLIC COMPANY LIMITED CARDS"
